International Foundation Diploma

IFD
Level 4

The Foundation Diploma course is designed to prepare learners (students) for entry into a Diploma course. This exciting study journey introduces learners (students) to academic study skills and a business context, equipping them with essential skills that lay the groundwork for further study and future employment.

The course focuses on a broad range of skills beyond academic subjects. These include critical thinking, business communication and employability applications. Learners (students) learn to think independently, problem-solve, and express themselves effectively—skills that are valuable in any field.
